

2024 WEA Conference
CAPITALISM, SOCIALISM AND DEMOCRACY 80 YEARS LATER:
Looking at capitalism today in light of its past and possible future

Webinar session: Wednesday, March 27th, 4:00 6.30 pm UK time zone.

Platform: Google Meet

Webinar Program

|                      |  |   |
|----------------------|--|---|
| 4:00 pm UK time zone | Welcome and introduction of the Conference Leaders Dr. Arturo Hermann and Dr. Maria Alejandra Madi |   |
|                      | Authors  | Papers/ Titles  |
| Session I     |  |   |
|                      | Luciano Santander Hoces & Ana Belén Mercado  | The neoliberal-conservative alliance and the strategies for adaptation of the right in times of crisis in the Constitutional Convention of Chile (2021-2022): actors and reaction |
|                      | John Willoughby  | From elitist to participatory: the curious evolution of Schumpeter's model of socialism   |
|                      | Davi Antunes & Marília Tunes   | Democracy, neoliberalism, and financial oligarchy   |
| Q&amp;A       | The attendees will send their questions via chat box. Moderator: Arturo Hermann                    |   |
|                      |  |   |
| Session II    |  |   |
|                      | Peter Bofinger   | Discovering the true Schumpeter: New insights into finance and growth nexus   |
|                      | Jesper Jespersen   | Keynes's analytical view of the 'long run'  |
|                      | Lászlo Kulin   | How competitiveness and sustainability be preserved? Multi-speed economics around the globe   |
|                      |  |   |
| Q&amp;A       | The attendees will send their questions via chat box. Moderator: Arturo Hermann                    |   |
|                      |  |   |
| Session III   |  |   |
|                      | Authors' general remarks   |   |
|                      | Leaders' remarks   |   |
|                      | Concluding remarks   |   |